

Down and Connor Diocesan Trust

Ethos and Values required of all Employees

The main objects of the Diocese of Down and Connor ("the Diocese") are the advancement of the Roman Catholic religion in the Roman Catholic Diocese of Down and Connor, and the advancement of any charitable purpose supported by the Roman Catholic Church in any part of the world. While remaining true to its own distinctive ethos, the Diocese places great value on inclusiveness with Christians of other traditions and those of other faiths and none. The Diocese is committed to the promotion of equality of opportunity. However, bearing in mind its main objects, there may be some circumstances in which the Diocese may rely on lawful exceptions to general principles.

The Diocese requires that all people working within its institutions and agencies, regardless of their faith tradition or perspective, demonstrate the highest standards of respect for the values, teaching and mission of the Church.

This includes:

Respect for the Inherent Dignity of every person:

In all activities relating to your work, you will be required to demonstrate high standards of respect and courtesy towards every person with whom you have contact, and to contribute to a collaborative and supportive atmosphere among those with whom you work.

Respect for Teaching and Practice:

Our expectation is that everyone who works for the Diocese

- will demonstrate high respect for the teaching, practice and religious symbols of the Catholic Church, and act in a manner that is consistent with the values and ethos of the Diocese.
- will adhere to high standards of ethics at all times, and to be personally active in supporting an ethical and courteous culture among all Diocesan staff.
